By driving to Lakewood High School, I agree that I will follow the rules and regulations set forth by Lakewood Local Schools: I agree that my vehicle may be searched upon request by the administration. I understand that failure to comply will be considered insubordination. My vehicle WILL be parked only in my authorized assigned space, and it will NOT be moved until my dismissal time. Each student who is going to drive to school must have a form on file in the office. I understand that if I cannot follow the school rules, I may NOT be permitted to drive to school. Additional rules include:

1. Observe 15 mph speed limit while on school property.
2. Do not break through the line of buses when exiting.
3. Students shall not loiter in vehicles on school property.
4. Each student is responsible for the vehicles and its contents.
5. Each car must DISPLAY the current years parking permit sticker on the left hand side of the rear window.
6. All students must park in the student lot.
7. Students shall NOT go to vehicles during school day without permission from the office
8. Cutting through traffic or empty parking spaces to enter or exit the lot could be considered reckless driving and could result in loss of driving privileges.
9. Observe all parking lot regulations.
10. Cars parked in visitor parking without permission or other unauthorized areas or spaces are subject to towing at the owner's expense, and may result in Saturday School, Suspension, and/or loss of driving privileges.

Return completed form to purchase your Parking Permit.
